

Below is part of a famous ABC or abecedarian poem from Darius Daniels: Game On!

Create another ABC poem that tells a story about a boy named D that goes to the letter O. See how many new ABC poems you and your classmates, friends or family can make. Work with one other person and send them to me at caroline@carolinebrewerbooks.com for a chance to win an autographed copy of the book. Feel free to finish the poem below and enter to win. Have fun!

A boy was about to Be
Chased real hard like a basketball guard.
D was his name, you see, and he was on the Edge.
Family and friends on one side,
Getting together at his home.
Him on the other, sometimes feeling alone,
In a game world that made his head swirl.
Jammed up his brain and rained
Karate chops and knocked him for a
Loop. He didn't see it coming that Morning. Should have been a warning, but
No.
Oops.

Try your own poem from A to O or finish the one below.

At night, a
Brave boy
Could hardly sleep because he was
Dreaming about
Evil monsters he and his Family had to fight to Get